DOG OBEDIENCE TRAINING

About the Instructor: Upon graduating from UVA, Ashleigh Morris looked to the dog world for a career path. Her natural ability with dogs led her to pursue a career in dog training. Studying under an Animal Behavior Consultant, Ashleigh learned a variety of skills to help people solve their dog's behavior problems. She also learned to train dogs and humans in the basic skills needed to enhance the human - animal bond. Ashleigh has been training on her own since 2005 and continues to expand her knowledge and education in order to help people mold their dogs into the perfect companion. She uses positive reinforcement methods.

Contact Ashleigh Morris at (434) 589 -7209 or aymorris@hotmail.com with any questions.

BEGINNING OBEDIENCE

All Ages / See Dates & Times Below / $75 per Session / Dog Spot @ Fluvanna Community Center

Dogs will be dogs until humans teach them proper manners. Learn how to positively motivate your dog to learn how to live in the human world. This class teaches sit, look, down, stay, come, leave it, and loose leash walking — all building blocks to a well-mannered dog. Typical behavior problems and solutions for biting, barking, and many other issues will be discussed. Dogs of all ages with up-to-date shots are welcome. Families are encouraged to attend together.

DOG OBEDIENCE TRAINING

CANINE GOOD CITIZEN

This class is designed to teach you how to teach your dog to be a good citizen in the community. Ashleigh will spend each class teaching and perfecting the 10 skills needed to pass the AKC Canine Good Citizen test. She is an approved AKC Canine Good Citizen Test evaluator. The official AKC CGC Test is offered for an additional fee at graduation. This is a 5-week class.

CONFIDENCE BUILDING

Help your dog gain confidence while you have fun teaching your dog to conquer a variety of obstacles. The more dogs learn and try new things, the more confidence they obtain. Continuing to work together helps them place more trust in their human and strengthen your bond. This is a 4-week class.

INTERMEDIATE OBEDIENCE

Take your dog's training to the next level. In Intermediate Obedience, learn to get your dog to focus on you and respond to you with lots of distractions. You and your dog will build on the skills learned in Beginning Obedience. There is a focus on hand signals and making the basic commands more challenging. This is a 4-week class.

Graduates of the Beginning Obedience Class may enter these classes. If you have a question about your dog's obedience level please contact Ashleigh at (434) 589 -7209 or aymorris@hotmail.com

DOG TRAINING ONE-DAY CLINICS

Dates and Times Below / $30 per Clinic / Dog Spot @ Fluvanna Community Center

Training clinics are designed to help people learn how to teach basic skills to their dogs. Clinic I is a prerequisite to taking Clinic II, Clinic III & IV, unless you have trained with Ashleigh previously. You can choose which clinics you attend or attend all of them.

Clinic I: Tuesday, Sep 18 10:00 - 11:00 am

WITHOUT DOGS! No, you didn't read that wrong! This Clinic is designed so that the 2-legged students can learn how to use positive reinforcement to achieve training goals. Since you are your dog's primary trainer, it is a must for you to understand how to communicate with them and to help them grow into the canine companion that you would like for them to become.

Clinic II: Thursday, Oct 18 10:00 - 11:00 am

Look, sit, come, stay & wait (perfect for teaching the dogs not to dash out the door).

Clinic III: Wednesday, Nov 28 3:30 - 4:30 pm

Look, sit, come, down & settle (ideal for having the dogs chill while company is over).

Clinic IV: Thursday, Dec 13 10:00 - 11:00 am

Look, sit, come, leave it & drop it (a must if the dog snags an item they shouldn't have).

FCPR INCLEMENT WEATHER POLICY: In the event of inclement weather, the Fluvanna County Parks and Recreation Department's sponsored activities will be cancelled when Fluvanna County Public Schools are on a delay or closed due to inclement weather. SESSION 1: Sept 29, Saturday, 2 pm

SESSION 2: Nov 3, Saturday, 2 pm

Enjoy a leisurely walk in the woods with a llama as your companion. Guided along roughly 3 miles of trails at Pleasant Grove, learn about llamas and the local flora and fauna along the way. Each person, gets to walk their own llama. Younger children may accompany an adult. Each walk has room for up to 8 people. Bottled water provided. Please wear appropriate shoes for a hike in the woods as we will be crossing creeks. No flip flops, clogs or open-tied shoes. The introduction to the llamas and the walk takes about 2 to 3 hours. Must register in advance. We will meet in the equine parking area.

Trek Leaders: Heather Antonacci and Paige McGrath - Lower Sherwood Llamas.

OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES

VIRGINIA MASTER NATURALIST ACTIVITIES

HIKES ARE ON THE SECOND SATURDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10 AM

- ⇒ September 8 – Meet at the Nature Room at Pleasant Grove House Summer Kitchen to visit some of the many Bluebird houses at Pleasant Grove with a Bluebird monitor. Learn how to encourage Bluebirds on your property.
- ⇒ October 13 – Meet at the Equestrian parking for a discussion and guided hike about the effect of Fall on animals and their habitats. Go on a hike with a Master Naturalist along the Heritage and Cross Hill trails to observe how the change in seasons affects the natural environment.
- ⇒ November 10 – Meet at the upper picnic shelter at the Dog Park for a guided hike with a Master Naturalist along the ADA friendly Sandy Beach Trail. We'll be looking for "Ghost Trees", "Alien Species", "Invaders", and other "unnatural" nature sights.
- ⇒ December – No hike!
- ⇒ January 12 – Meet at the soccer field parking lot for a guided hike with a Master Naturalist. We'll hike along portions of the Brush Arbor, Rock Brook and Quail Meadow trails to observe how the winter season has changed these wildlife habitats. We'll be watching to see how the plants have changed and how the animals that depend on them adapt.

INFORMATIONAL KIOSKS: Look for new educational materials and current trail info posted on our Trailhead Kiosk built through a Virginia Dominion Power grant.

SELF-GUIDED NATURE HIKE: Developed by the Master Naturalist for the annual Earth Day event. The Kiosk behind the Butterfly Garden has a guide to the numbered signs along the trail to help you understand the forest and history of this area.

NATURE ROOM: The Nature Room in the Summer Kitchen attached to the Pleasant Grove House Museum contains artifacts, found nature objects and educational materials about the wildlife and the natural resources of Fluvanna county.

NATURE FLYERS: Printed educational brochures are available in the Pleasant Grove Museum House. Flyers include information on birding in Fluvanna County, tree identification at Pleasant Grove Park and information on Bluebirds and Bobwhite Quail.

BUTTERFLY GARDEN: Visit our Butterfly Garden with over 500 native plants featured in four different landscapes. See thousands of pollinators at work, in the summer witness newly hatched Monarchs on our Milkweeds. The Butterfly Garden is near the Community Garden and the main parking lot of the Pleasant Grove House Museum.

Visit www.rivannariver.org to find out about other nature programs in Fluvanna County including nature hikes at the Scheier Natural Area. The Scheier Natural Area is a 100 acre parcel of land with 8 ponds and over 3 miles of beautiful trails for hiking, enjoyment of nature, and environmental education.
